STATE OF MAINE.

Chapter 98. Public Laws of 1895.

An Act to provide for the investigation of the causes of fires, and the publication of statistics relating to the same.

Municipal officers shall investigate cause and origin of fires.

SECT. 1. When property is destroyed by fire, it shall be the duty of the municipal officers in cities and towns to make investigation of the cause, circumstances and origin thereof, and especially to examine whether it was the result of carelessness or of design. The investigation shall be commenced within six days of the occurrence of the fire, not including the Lord's day, and it shall be the duty of the mayor in cities and of the chairman of the selectmen in towns to call such meeting of the municipal officers. And said municipal officers shall have the powers vested in trial justices to compel the attendance of witnesses to testify before them upon such inquest.

power to compel attendance.

Shall present to town clerk, statement of all the facts, for record.

SECT. 2. They shall present to the city or town clerk, for record by him in a book provided by the insurance commissioner, a written statement of all the facts relating to the cause of such fire, the kind, value and ownership of property destroyed, and of such other particulars as may be called for in the form provided, and of any other facts which to them seem pertinent; and such record shall be made within two weeks of the occurrence of the fire.

Clerk shall forward copy to insurance commissioner.

SECT. 3. The clerk shall make a transcript of such fire record upon a blank form provided by the insurance commissioner, for each six months preceeing, and forward the same to the insurance commissioner within fifteen days from the first day of July and the first day of January in each year. He shall also transmit to the insurance commissioner within a reasonable time, upon his request, a copy of the record as to any particular fire, or any facts concerning it.

Penalty for neglecting duty.

SECT. 4. Any officer neglecting or refusing to perform any duty required of him by the provisions of this act, shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Insurance commissioner shall tabulate statistics.

SECT. 5. The insurance commissioner shall classify and tabulate the statistics so obtained and shall publish them in his annual report.

[Approved March 14, 1895.]
